

Josep Grifoll Saurí

Economist (UAB 1993) and Master East Asian Studies (UOC 2008). Technical director for institutional and study programmes evaluations in AQU Catalunya, and member of the Board of ENQA (elected in 2008).

Since 1997 he is working in AQU Catalunya on QA processes for programmes and higher education institutions; he has also experience in international QA projects and processes within Europe, Latin America and South East Asia.

He has been member of the steering committee of EQAF (the European Quality Assurance Forum) in 2010 and 2011; he was the coordinator of the 2011 edition of the ENQA Survey on QA procedures "Visions for the future"; and represented ENQA, designing the self-assessment tool, in the EURASHE promoted project to develop lifelong learning strategies in HEI.

At the moment, he is representing ENQA in a capacity building project for the ASEAN Countries; he is also involved in a team of experts developing pilot accreditations of higher education study programmes in Bosnia and Herzegovina; and coordinating an international ENQA working group about the impact of external QA in HE.

Before being involved in QA for Higher Education, he worked at Nissan Motor doing job evaluations and in the Universitat Politècnica developing systems to manage the PhD office.
